

Important disability websites to link into

It is worthwhile to have important disability links in one place. PMA have put together some worthwhile links that may assist providers, participants and carers.

- NDIS - provides all people with disability with information and connections to services in their communities such as doctors, sporting clubs, support groups, libraries and schools, as well as information about what support is provided by each state and territory government.
- Every Australian Counts - an interesting site that has information on the NDIS and important news.
- Centre for Applied Disability Research - has been created to improve the wellbeing of Australians with disability by gathering insights, building understanding, and sharing knowledge.
- NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission - is an independent agency established to improve the quality and safety of NDIS supports and services. The NDIS Commission regulates the NDIS market and handles complaints about the quality and safety of NDIS supports and services.
- People with disability - is a national disability rights, advocacy and representative organisation that is made up of, led and governed by people with disability.

- Disability Services Australia - is a dynamic for purpose social enterprise supporting 3,000 people with a disability and employing more than 1,600 people in key regions of New South Wales.
- Children and Young People with a Disability - is the national representative organisation for children and young people with disability aged 0 to 25 years.
- Autism Spectrum Australia - is Australia's largest autism-specific service provider, with one of the biggest autism-specific school programs in the world.
- Downs Syndrome Australia - provides a range of supports and services for people with Down syndrome, their families and supporters.
- Royal Society for the Blind - is the primary source of assistance giving people with a vision impairment the opportunity to improve the quality and independence of their lives.
- The Deaf Society - one of Australia's leading providers of specialist services for deaf, deafblind and hard of hearing people and their families.
- Spinal Cord Injuries of Australia – they help you overcome barriers, achieve goals and live an independent life.
- Cerebral Palsy – provides continued support for you and family members.
- Beyond Blue - provides information and support to help everyone in Australia achieve their best possible mental health, whatever their age and wherever they live.
- Australian Society for Intellectual Disability - an independent authority on intellectual disability issues across Australasia.

REGISTERED
NDIS
PROVIDER